

POST OF ASSISTANT LECTURER/LECTURER IN ENGLISH LITERATURE

GENERAL JOB DESCRIPTION Duties and Terms & Conditions of Employment

1. PREAMBLE

Mary Immaculate College (MIC) is an autonomous, university-level, Catholic College of Education and the Liberal Arts. Founded in 1898, and linked academically with the University of Limerick, MIC is the oldest higher education institution in Limerick. Significant expansion in recent decades has seen the College's offerings proliferate across two impressive campuses, one based in the heart of Limerick City and one in Thurles, Co. Tipperary. The diverse student community is made up of more than 5,000 learners, participating in ten undergraduate degree programmes and a multiplicity of postgraduate opportunities extending to doctoral level. Academic staff are engaged in a wide range of research interests which underpins all teaching and learning at the College.

MIC seeks to prepare its students for professional excellence and to nurture their capacity to lead flourishing lives.

2. CANDIDATE PROFILE AND SCOPE OF THE POSITION

Mary Immaculate College wishes to appoint an Assistant Lecturer/Lecturer in English Literature on a full time, fixed term basis, commencing January 2020 and ending in June 2021.

The Department of English Language and Literature seeks an innovative and involved faculty member to teach on English programmes within the Faculty of Arts. Under the direction of the Head of Department of English Language and Literature and the Dean of Arts, the successful candidate will complement an enthusiastic team, contribute to the teaching and supervision of English Language and Literature for undergraduates and postgraduate students across faculties, and contribute to the academic life of the college.

The appointee will be required to participate in the teaching and delivery of assigned modules in the College's undergraduate and postgraduate degree programmes, e.g. the BA in Liberal Arts, the B.Ed. in Primary Education, the MA in Modern English Language and Literature and the MA in Philosophy and Literature. The appointee will also be expected to supervise the thesis component of the Taught MA in Modern English Literature, and of the MA in Philosophy and Literature. Furthermore, the candidate will also be expected to supervise dissertations at research MA and PhD levels. The appointee will also be expected to contribute to the research activities of the Department of Language and Literature. In addition, the individual appointed will be required to participate in programme development, and will be assigned administrative duties.

The Department is research active with more than 500 undergraduates and some 45 postgraduates. In terms of postgraduate work, the department has graduated over 40 PhDs, 160 taught MAs and 10 research MAs. Current faculty have published 35 academic monographs and edited collections.

Commitment to high-quality teaching and learning in a student-centred environment is important. Enthusiasm for a multi-disciplinary environment is desired. The person appointed must exhibit evidence of strong commitment to excellence in teaching, research and continued scholarly activity.

Essential Qualifications & Skills (i.e. those, without which, a candidate would not be able to do the job. Applications that have not clearly demonstrated that candidates possess the essential requirements will not be shortlisted):

In order to be considered for this post, applicants must have:

1. A relevant third-level qualification at doctoral level;
2. Evidence of relevant teaching experience, minimum 2 years;
3. Third-level undergraduate teaching experience in English across a number of 20th and 21st century areas;
4. A specialism in 21st century writing, and expertise in some areas of contemporary literary theory is also necessary;
5. Ability to offer research and teaching expertise which complements that already present in the Department of English Language and Literature;
6. A record of postgraduate teaching, and of postgraduate supervision at research MA and PhD levels;
7. A significant research profile demonstrated by:
  - (a) academic publications (such as monographs, edited books, chapters in books, journal articles etc.);
  - (b) conference presentations;
8. Ability to contribute to the area of Irish Studies;
9. Experience of teaching as part of a team, as well as the capability of working on their own initiative;
10. Excellent interpersonal, organisational, communication and presentational skills.

It is desirable that candidates will also have:

- a) Evidence of innovative approaches to teaching English at third-level;
- b) Experience of academic service / administration.

Applicants must clearly indicate in their applications how they meet each of these pre-requisites. Applicants will be shortlisted on the basis of the information provided.

Cuirfear fáilte roimh iarratais ó dhaoine go bhfuil dearcadh dearfach acu i leith na Gaeilge. Applications are welcome from people who have a positive outlook to Irish.

Please note that current government policy may have implications for the re-employment of applicants who are currently in receipt of a public sector pension.

3. JOB DESCRIPTION

Reporting Relationship

The appointee is required to carry out the duties attached to the post, under the general direction of the Head of Department, to whom he/she reports, and to whom he/she is responsible to for the performance of these duties in the first instance. The appointee will report through the Head of Department to the Dean of Arts and to the College President and/or such other College Officers as the President may designate from time to time.

He/she will liaise with the Heads of Departments and those in leadership/management positions within the Faculty of Arts and with other College personnel and relevant College bodies in carrying out the duties attaching to the post. In the case of there being a crossover in terms of the duties and responsibilities of other post holders within the College, the College President will adjudicate on same.

The reporting relationship may be amended, in line with service needs and developments in the College.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Teaching modules through lecture, seminar, tutorial, workshop and blended learning methods;
- Research: designing research projects, developing research partnerships, seeking external funding for research projects, publication and dissemination of research;
- Examining and correction of scripts;

These policies include but are not confined to Disciplinary & Grievance Policies, Dignity at Work Policy, Examination Rules & Regulations, Policy on Responsible Computing. These policies are outlined on the Staff Portal for College employees. All employees are required to familiarise themselves with the contents of the Policies and Procedures.

5. APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

Method of Selection for Recommendation

Shortlisting

An expert group will convene to conduct shortlisting of all applicants, measured against the pre-determined criteria required of the position.

Normally the number of applications received for a position exceeds that required to fill the position. While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the College may decide that a limited number will be called to interview. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable to undertake the job, rather that there are some candidates, based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience. It is incumbent, therefore upon the applicant, to ensure that all relevant information is included in their application and that they clearly identify how they meet the specified candidate criteria.

Candidates must produce satisfactory documentary evidence of all training and experience claimed by them, if required.

Interview

A recommendation for appointment will be made by an Interview Board. The appointment will be based on this recommendation, except where considerations of health or an unsuitable record in previous employment warrants a departure. A panel will be formed from which temporary appointments to the position of Assistant Lecturer/Lecturer in English Literature may be filled during the life of the panel (12 months).

Medical Examination

For the purpose of satisfying requirements as to health, successful candidates, before being appointed, will be required to undergo pre-employment health screening.

Garda Vetting

All successful applicants will be required to participate in Garda vetting. Specific instruction on this process will be given at the appropriate time. Applicants who do not comply with the College's requirements in this regard will be excluded from consideration for appointment.

Making of Applications

Applications must be submitted in typed format. Handwritten applications will not be accepted. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Application forms for this post may be downloaded from the Mary Immaculate College website. www.mic.ul.ie/about-mic/vacancies. Applications must be submitted by e-mail to recruitment@mic.ul.ie with the subject title Assistant Lecturer/Lecturer in English Literature no later than:

Friday, 4th October, 2019 at 2pm

Late applications cannot be accepted.

The College will not be responsible for any expenses, including travelling expenses, which candidates may incur in connection with their candidature.

Canvassing will disqualify. Any attempt by a candidate either personally or through any other person, on their behalf, to canvass or otherwise influence the outcome of the selection/interview process in his/her favour will lead to disqualification from the competition. Any representations made on behalf of a candidate, without his/her knowledge will be ignored.

Mary Immaculate College is an equal opportunities employer.

Candidates will be short-listed on the basis of information supplied.
