

POST OF ASSISTANT PROFESSOR (ASSISTANT LECTURER/LECTURER) IN ENGLISH LITERATURE

GENERAL JOB DESCRIPTION Duties and Terms & Conditions of Employment

1. PREAMBLE

Mary Immaculate College is an autonomous, university-level, Catholic College of Education and the Liberal Arts. Founded in 1898, and linked academically with the University of Limerick, MIC is the oldest higher education institution in Limerick. Significant expansion in recent decades has seen the College's menu of educational programmes expand across two impressive campuses, one based in the heart of Limerick City and one in Thurles, Co. Tipperary. The diverse student community is made up of more than 5,000 learners, participating in fourteen undergraduate degree programmes and a wide range of postgraduate programmes up to and including doctoral level. Academic staff members engage in professional academic research activities, and research underpins all teaching and learning at the College.

MIC seeks to prepare its students for professional excellence and to nurture their capacity to lead flourishing lives.

2. CANDIDATE PROFILE AND SCOPE OF THE POSITION

Mary Immaculate College wishes to fill the position of Assistant Professor (Assistant Lecturer/Lecturer) in English Literature on a fulltime, permanent basis.

The Department of English Language and Literature seeks an innovative and involved faculty member to teach on English programmes within the Faculty of Arts. Under the direction of the Head of Department of English Language and Literature and the Dean of Arts, the successful candidate will complement an enthusiastic team, contribute to the teaching and supervision of English Language and Literature for undergraduates and postgraduate students across faculties, and contribute to the academic life of the college.

The appointee will be required to participate in the teaching and delivery of assigned modules in the College's undergraduate and postgraduate degree programmes, e.g. the BA in Liberal Arts, the B.Ed. in Primary Education, the Online Taught MA in Modern English Literature and the Structured PhD in Irish Studies. The appointee will also be expected to supervise the thesis component of the Taught MA in Modern English Literature, and of the MA in Philosophy and Literature. Furthermore, the candidate will also be expected to supervise dissertations at research MA and PhD levels. The appointee will also be expected to contribute to the research activities of the Department of Language and Literature. In addition, the individual appointed will be required to participate in programme development, and will be assigned administrative duties. The Department is research active with more than 700 undergraduates and some 45 postgraduates. In terms of postgraduate work, the Department has graduated 63 PhDs, 175 taught MAs and 10 research MAs. Current faculty have published 63 academic monographs and edited collections and some 230 journal articles and book chapters.

Commitment to high-quality research-led teaching and learning in a student-centred environment is important. Enthusiasm for a multi-disciplinary environment is desired. The person appointed must exhibit evidence of strong commitment to excellence in teaching, research and continued scholarly activity.

Essential Qualifications & Skills (i.e. those, without which, a candidate would not be able to do the job.)

In order to be considered for this post, applicants must have:

1. A relevant third-level qualification in English Literature at doctoral level;
2. A minimum of 3 years' relevant experience in teaching at third-level;
3. Third-level undergraduate teaching experience in English across a number of late-20th and 21st century areas;
4. A specialism in 21st century writing, and expertise in some areas of contemporary literary theory;
5. Experience in module and programme design and modification;
6. Experience of working on a taught postgraduate programme, including teaching, and of postgraduate supervision at MA and PhD levels;
7. A significant research profile demonstrated by: monographs, edited books, chapters in books, journal articles, and conference presentations along with some experience of engagement in broader team research projects
8. Experience of teaching in a blended learning context, including a high level of competence in the use of a virtual learning environment;
9. Excellent organisational, interpersonal, , communication and presentational skills.

Desirable

It is desirable that the candidate be able to:

1. Contribute to the area of Irish Studies through research through teaching and research activities;
2. Have some experience of faculty-wide administration.

Cuirfear fáilte roimh iarratais ó dhaoine go bhfuil dearcadh dearfach acu i leith na Gaeilge. Applications are welcome from people who have a positive outlook to Irish.

Please note that current government policy may have implications for the re-employment of applicants who are currently in receipt of a public sector pension.

3. JOB DESCRIPTION

Reporting Relationship

The appointee is required to carry out the duties attached to the post, under the general direction of the Head of Department, to whom they report, and to whom they are responsible to for the performance of these duties in the first instance. The appointee will report through the Head of Department to the Dean of Arts and to the College President and/or such other College Officers as the President may designate from time to time.

They will liaise with the Heads of Departments and those in leadership/management positions within the Faculty of Arts and with other College personnel and relevant College bodies in carrying out the duties attaching to the post. In the case of there being a crossover in terms of the duties and responsibilities of other post holders within the College, the College President will adjudicate on same.

The reporting relationship may be amended, in line with service needs and developments in the College.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Teaching undergraduate and postgraduate modules through lecture, seminar, tutorial, workshop and blended learning methods;
- Teaching in both face-to-face and online modes at undergraduate and postgraduate levels;
- Research: designing research projects, developing research partnerships, seeking external funding for research projects, publication and dissemination of research;
- Examining and correction of scripts;
- Supervision of research at Undergraduate Dissertation, Taught MA, Research MA and PhD levels;
- Developing teaching & learning strategies;
- Academic administration including attendance and participation in meetings of the Department of English Language and Literature, and other groupings;
- Participation in the work of the Department of English Language and Literature;
- Attendance and participation in all meetings of Examination Boards;
- Consultation with students and the broader learning community;
- Participation in appropriate projects and committees.

The duties will include working on the College's undergraduate programmes as required as well as postgraduate programmes including Diploma, Masters and PhD levels. In addition, the individual appointed will be required to participate in such programmes as the College will determine in association with the University.

The list of duties and responsibilities as detailed is not exhaustive. The performance of the entire range of duties is not necessarily confined to any one individual, as the work requires that staff function in a flexible manner, and work together as a team. The College retains the right to assign new duties and/or to re-assign staff to other areas of the College, in response to service needs.

4. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

General

All persons employed will sign an appropriate contract, which will contain terms and conditions of the employment. A job description is given to all applicants for employment and this will form part of the contract documentation.

Place of Work

The appointee's place of work will be Mary Immaculate College, Limerick. The College reserves the right to require the appointee to work from any other location.

It is a requirement of the College that the appointee must reside within a reasonable distance of the College.

Exclusivity of Service and Outside Work

The person appointed will be required to devote his/her full-time attention and abilities to his/her duties during his/her working hours in the College and to act in the best interest of the College at all times. Therefore, for as long as the successful applicant is working in the College, he/she may not, without the prior written consent of the College, be actively engaged or concerned in any way, either directly or indirectly, in any other business or undertaking where this is or is likely to be in conflict with the College's interests or the performance of the duties that the person has been employed for.

Apart from the occasional giving of lectures elsewhere, the writing of books and occasional literary materials, the appointee will not, during his/her tenure of office, undertake paid outside work unless he/she has received the permission of Vice President, Academic Affairs (VPAA) to undertake such work on the terms and conditions as agreed for the particular undertaking in question. In every case, it is the duty of the appointee to seek in writing the prior permission of VPAA. It is also the duty, in every case, of the appointee to inform the person or body for whom the work is being undertaken, that the work is being conducted in a private capacity and that the College cannot in any circumstances be responsible for such work.

Probationary Period

The appointment is subject to satisfactory completion of the standard 6-month probationary period. The probationary period may be extended at the discretion of the College but will not in any case exceed 11 months. Absences during the period of probation will extend the probationary period. Performance and conduct during the probationary period will be monitored through a process of assessment meetings. Termination of employment during the probationary period, for any reason or no reason, will be at the discretion of the College. The disciplinary procedure will not apply to a dismissal during probation where the probationary employee has been employed by MIC for less than 12 months.

Hours of Attendance

The normal working week is 39 hours per week or 7.8 hours per day, Monday to Friday. The appointee is expected to be habitually present and available to staff and students alike during normal College hours, Monday to Friday. The appointee may be required to work occasional evenings and weekends.

Academic staff members are required to supply students with an MIC e-mail address at which they can be contacted. They must also provide the College Authorities with a telephone number at which he/she may be contacted during non-semester times. However, under no circumstances will contact telephone numbers be given to students by College Authorities.

Salary

The salary scales for this position have been approved by the Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science in line with Government Policy on Public Sector remuneration. The annual salary for the post may be increased or decreased in line with Government Policy on Public Sector remuneration. In keeping with all other branches of the Civil and Public Service, individual bargaining for salary increases is not allowed.

The appointment will be made on the salary scale at a point in line with current Government Pay Policy. New entrants to the Civil or Public Sector, as defined in Circular 18/2010, will commence on the first point of the salary scale.

With effect from 1st October, 2022, the annual salary scale for Assistant Lecturer is:

New Entrant:

€48,188; €51,205; €53,338; €56,748; €60,256; €66,064; €73,605; €76,795; €79,974; €83,170; €86,345 (11 points)

Non-New Entrant

€53,338; €56,748; €60,256; €66,064; €73,605; €76,879; €80,183; €83,505; €86,803 (9 points)

With effect from 1st October, 2022, the annual salary scale for Lecturer is:

€57,477; €67,688; €71,310; €73,802; €77,444; €81,126; €84,790; €88,452; €92,115 (9 points)

Increments are awarded in line with national pay agreements.

Salary will be paid on a monthly basis on the 25th of each month, or the previous Friday if 25th falls on a weekend, using the Paypath facility. Payment of salaries and wages are subject to statutory deductions, i.e. Income Tax (PAYE), Superannuation Contributions, Pay Related Social Insurance (PRSI) and Universal Social Charge (USC).

Superannuation

New entrants appointed will be required to participate in the Single Public Service Pension Scheme and pay Superannuation contributions at the appropriate rates in accordance with the provisions of the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act, 2012. Details of this scheme can be obtained from the College's website.

All other eligible appointees are automatically included in the Colleges' of Education Pension Scheme on taking up appointment. In compliance with the Colleges of Education Pension Scheme, deductions amounting to 6.5% are made from salary. Details of the regulations concerning the Colleges' of Education Pension Scheme may be obtained from the College's Human Resources Office.

The appointee will be required to pay Additional Superannuation Contribution (ASC) under the provisions of the Public Service and Pensions Act 2017.

Appointees who commenced employment in the public service between 1st April 2004 and 31st December 2012 and have not had a break in employment of greater than 6 months will have no mandatory retirement age. All other appointees will have a mandatory retirement age of 70.

Staff who are not eligible for membership of the Colleges' of Education Pension Scheme or the Single Public Service Pension Scheme may avail of a PRSA (Personal Retirement Savings Account). A designated PRSA provider has been nominated by the College and staff who are not eligible for membership of the aforementioned schemes should contact the Finance Office for further information on PRSA

Annual Leave

In addition to Public Holidays, a minimum of 20 working days will be allowed per annum. Annual leave should be taken when students are off campus and the taking of leave must have the prior approval of the relevant Line Manager. Public Holidays are granted in accordance with the provisions of the Organisation of Working Time Act, 1997.

Sick Leave

Employees who have a minimum 3 months continuous employment with the College may be granted sick pay subject to the terms of the Public Service Sick Leave Scheme. Sick pay is contingent on full cooperation and compliance with the Colleges absence management procedures.

Termination of Employment

At least three calendar months written notice is required to resign this post.

On the termination of employment but before departing from the College, staff members are required to return to the College all books, reports, memoranda, correspondence, papers, records, reports, files including data held on electronic files, computer disks, electronically recorded discs, and any other documentation, and all other property, including office keys, belonging to the College or relating to its business or affairs which are in the possession of a staff member or under his/her control when the employment is terminated.

Confidentiality

In the course of working in Mary Immaculate College, the person appointed may have access to or hear information concerning staff and/or students and/or the functioning and the business of the College. Such information acquired in the course of employment with the College, including any aspect of the College's responsibilities or operations, is considered to be confidential information. On no account must information concerning students, staff or other College business be divulged or discussed except in the performance of normal duties and, unless authorised to do so, this information shall not be communicated to a third party. In addition records must never be left in a manner that unauthorised persons can obtain access to them and must be kept in safe custody when no longer required.

Health & Safety

Mary Immaculate College attaches the highest regard to the safety, health and welfare of its employees. It is the duty of each employee to take reasonable care to protect the health and safety of themselves and of other people in the workplace. Each employee must comply with all health and safety policies and procedures in operation in Mary Immaculate College and familiarise him/herself with the Safety Statement.

Employees are obliged to wear any PPE (Personal Protective Equipment) that they may be provided with and no person shall intentionally or recklessly interfere with or misuse any appliance, protective clothing or other equipment provided in the workplace for health and safety purposes. Employees are statutorily/legally obliged to ensure that any accidents/incidents which may occur are reported promptly to the Health and Safety Officer on the MIC Accident/Incident Report Form.

College Policies, Rules and Regulations

The College is a Public Sector employer and is bound by National Agreements. It is also bound by regulations, circulars and directives issued on behalf of Government by the Department of Finance, the Department of Education & Skills, the Department of Further and Higher Education, Research, Innovation and Science and the Higher Education Authority.

Employees are at all times subject to the provisions of the Code of Conduct for Staff, College policies, rules and regulations. These policies include but are not confined to Disciplinary & Grievance Policies, Dignity at Work, Examination Rules & Regulations, Policy on Responsible Computing and Use of Information Technology Facilities. All policies are outlined on the College's Staff Portal for College employees. All employees are required to familiarise themselves with the contents of Policies and Procedures, on the College's Staff Portal.

5. APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

Method of Selection for Recommendation

Shortlisting

An expert group will convene to conduct shortlisting of applicants, measured against pre-determined criteria.

The criteria that will be used to shortlist candidates for this appointment are:

- A relevant third-level qualification in English Literature at doctoral level;
- A minimum of 3 years' relevant experience in teaching at third-level;

- Third-level undergraduate teaching experience in English across a number of late-20th and 21st century areas;
- A specialism in 21st century writing, and expertise in some areas of contemporary literary theory;
- Experience in module and programme design and modification;
- Experience of working on a taught postgraduate programme, including teaching, and of postgraduate supervision at MA and PhD levels;
- A significant research profile demonstrated by: monographs, edited books, chapters in books, journals, articles, and conference presentations along with some experience of engagement in broader team research projects
- Experience of teaching in a blended learning context, including a high level of competence in the use of a virtual learning environment;

Normally the number of applications received for a position exceeds that required to fill the position. While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the College may decide that a limited number will be called to interview. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable to undertake the job, rather that there are some candidates, based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience. It is incumbent, therefore upon the applicant, to ensure that all relevant information is included in their application and that they clearly identify how they meet the specified candidate criteria.

Candidates must produce satisfactory documentary evidence of all training and experience claimed by them, if required.

Interview

A recommendation for appointment will be made by an Interview Board. The appointment will be based on this recommendation, except where considerations of health or an unsuitable record in previous employment warrants a departure. A panel will be formed from which permanent and temporary appointments to the position of Assistant Professor in English Literature may be filled during the life of the panel (12 months).

Pre-Employment Health Assessment

For the purpose of satisfying requirements as to health, successful candidates, before being appointed, will be required to undergo pre-employment health screening.

Garda Vetting

All successful applicants will be required to participate in Garda vetting. Specific instruction on this process will be given at the appropriate time. Applicants who do not comply with the College's requirements in this regard will be excluded from consideration for appointment.

Making of Applications

Applications must be submitted in typed format. Handwritten or incomplete applications will not be accepted. Applications will be acknowledged within 2 working days of submission. Please be sure to check Spam and Junk folders as it may be redirected here by your account preferences. If you do not receive an acknowledgement within 2 working days of submitting your application please contact the HR Office by emailing hr@mic.ul.ie.

Application forms for this post may be accessed on the Mary Immaculate College website www.mic.ul.ie/about-mic/vacancies. Please fully complete the application form and send it to recruitment@mic.ul.ie with the subject title – Assistant Professor in English Literature - no later than:

2pm on Wednesday, 22nd February 2023

Late applications cannot be accepted.

The College will not be responsible for any expenses, including travelling expenses, which candidates may incur in connection with their candidature.

Canvassing will disqualify. Any attempt by a candidate either personally or through any other person, on their behalf, to canvass or otherwise influence the outcome of the selection/interview process in his/her favour will lead to disqualification from the competition. Any representations made on behalf of a candidate, without his/her knowledge will be ignored.

Mary Immaculate College is an equal opportunities employer. Mary Immaculate College holds an Athena SWAN Bronze Institution award in recognition of our commitment to advancing equality and opportunity for all in higher education.

February 2023