5. APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

While a candidate may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the position are such that it would not be practical to interview everyone, the College may decide that a limited number will be called to interview. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable to undertake the job, rather that there are some candidates, based on their application, appear to be better qualified and/or have more relevant experience. It is incumbent, therefore upon the applicant, to ensure that all relevant information is included in their application and that they clearly identify how they meet the specified candidate criteria.

The appointment will be based on this recommendation, except where considerations of health or an unsuitable record in previous employment warrants a departure. Candidates must produce satisfactory documentary evidence of all training and experience claimed by them, if required.
