

CGLPD Open Night Information

	Who is it aimed at? The CGLPD Open Night is aimed at anyone interested in applying for and learning more about the Certificate in General Learning at MIC. People with an intellectual disability, their families and support workers are all welcome to attend.
	What can I expect? The programme coordinator, Órla Slattery, will give a talk on the CGLPD programme for 30 minutes. This will include details of how to apply for the CGLPD programme. This will be followed by a question and answer session for 20-30 mins. We will be asking for your contact details, in case you would like to receive an application form by post.
	When is it on? The CGLPD Open Night will take place on Tuesday 26 April at 7pm. Please arrive 10 minutes early so we can get everyone seated before we start. Órla and Jennifer will be there to welcome you.

When it is over?

The CGLPD Open night will finish at 8pm.

Where is it on?

The CGLPD Open Night is taking place in the TARA building of Mary Immaculate College.

It will take place in room T118 along the main corridor of the Tara Building.

What do I need to bring?

Please bring a pen and paper with you, in case you would like to write down some information.

While mask wearing is not required, it is strongly encouraged.